Re: MUR 4947 (Kemp for Vice President)

Dear Ms. Kay:

Upon returning to Washington yesterday, I found the letter from Chairman Scott E. Thomas informing me that the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that Kemp for Vice President and I, as Treasurer, have violated provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. Due to the imminence of the holidays and related family plans and work schedules, I am concerned about being able to adequately review the Factual and Legal Analysis and provide a response in the allotted 15 days. Accordingly, I am hereby requesting that my deadline for filing a response be extended by twenty days, from December 23, 1999 to January 12, 2000.

If you have any further questions, please call me at the above number. Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Kirk Clinkenbeard
